Daniel J. Zehnder

"Business CAN be funny"

Given our current business climate, it does not seem like there is much to smile about these days let alone have a laugh or two. But is that really the case?

If we cannot sometimes take a look at the lighter side of our business lives, what might we be missing? Regardless of your business, (retail, commercial, industrial, Not-For-Profit, etc) the points discussed will be sure to help you see new opportunities you may have not noticed before. The points covered will provide a timely (and funny) message for our tough times.

Daniel J Zehnder is one of the principal owners and the Chief Executive Officer of Trinity Logistics Corporation. Mr. Zehnder has 29 years in family business in industrial markets throughout the world. Mr. Zehnder' s approach to his business and professional life has been refined through his best educational experiences- his own mistakes. He is committed to his family, fellow-coworkers, customers and friends in an effort to help them all learn to balance the day-to-day.

Reservations will be accepted thru Friday, November 6.

All cancellations must be received 24 hours prior to the event to avoid charges.

Comments from the President

Last month we had a rather timely presentation on the affects of the economy on financial decisions our companies and financial institutions must make. We continue that general theme of the economy and its affects on our lives. PLEASE make special note, this is a LUNCH meeting, to offer a chance for additional members to attend. Look forward to seeing everyone there!

For the 2009-2010 program year, your Board is also pleased to provide the opportunity for you to enjoy a 'Staycation'! For every meeting you attend, your name will be placed in a drawing at the May dinner meeting for a one night stay at Stoney Creek, along with a $100 gift certificate to Bass Street Landing in Moline. You can increase your chances by also bringing along a guest/non-member, introducing them to the benefits of membership in ISM/NAPM-QC. Additionally, we will be awarding door prizes for those in attendance.
